Where a subscription user makes a payment via electronic fund transfer (EFT) in circumstances where the subscription user is required to make such payment via debit order, the EFT will be subject to an administration fee as determined by Lightstone from time to time, currently R100-00 (hundred rand).
- 4.2.11. Should the Consumer Protection Act 38 of 2008 ("CPA") not apply to these Terms and Conditions, on expiry of the Initial period or any subsequent period, this Agreement will automatically renew for a period equal to the Initial Period and at the applicable monthly subscription fee in force at the time for new subscribers (i.e. subject to any escalation that may have been introduced subsequent to conclusion of the Initial Period or any subsequent period). Whilst the Agreement remains in force, the subscriber shall continue to pay the Monthly Amount, subject to any escalation as aforementioned.
- 4.2.12. Should the CPA apply to this Agreement, prior to the expiry of the Initial Period, Lightstone shall notify the subscriber of the pending expiry of the Agreement and that on the expiry of the Agreement, it will be automatically continued on a month-to-month basis at the applicable monthly subscription fee in force each month for new subscribers (i.e. subject to any escalations). - 22.9. Each party shall pay their own arbitration costs, which they incur with their own legal advisors in respect of the negotiations, preparation for and conclusion of the arbitration proceedings.
